M. W. SCHLOSSER DIES SUDDENLY DRIVING AUTO

Mervin W Schlosser, 61, Aspers R. 1, died of a heart attack Sunday evening at 7:50 o'clock near Mt. Tabor as he and his wife were driving home from a visit with a foster son at nearby Goodyear.

A retired guard at the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot, Mr. Schlosser suddenly slumped at the wheel and the car, headed south, ran off the road, up a three-foot embankment and toppled over on its side.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, called to the scene, said the death was caused by a heart attack.

Wife Suffers Bruises

Mrs. Schlosser was examined by a physician following the accident and was found to have suffered only bruises in the crash. Damage to the car was estimated at about $100.

George May, Goodyear, a foster son of the couple, said they had spent the day with his family and then had started for home. The accident occurred about three miles from May's home, between Peach Glen and Mt. Tabor.

Passing motorists helped place the car on its wheels and helped Mrs. Schlosser from the vehicle. The ambulance was called from Gettysburg but was not needed. Dr. B. C. Jones was called from Bendersville to give first aid to Mrs. Schlosser.

Mr. Schlosser had been in failing health for some time. The immediate cause of death was listed as a coronary occlusion.

A son of the late Aron Schlosser, who had resided near Arendtsville, and Mrs. Alice Lawver Schlosser, Mechanicsburg R. 2, the deceased had been a farmer much of his life. He was also a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his mother, his wife, the former Cordie Black; the foster son, George May, and three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Emma Wisler, Camp Hill; George Schlosser, Rutherford Heights; Mrs. Charles Huntsberger, Mechanicsburg R 2; Mrs. Charles Sprout, Harrisburg, and Harris Schlosser, Dillsburg.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Wenksville Methodist Church with the body to lie in state at the church from 1 o'clock until the time of service. Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat will officiate at the service. Interment will be in the Wenksville cemetery. Friends may call Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 at the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville.

MANSLAUGHTER CASE ON TRIAL IN COURT TODAY

Trial of Joseph Melvin Condon, 37, Emmitsburg R. 3, on a charge of involuntary manslaughter was underway in Adams County coert today.

The trial began with the selection of a jury Friday, after which the jury looked at the scene of the accident near Fairfield, and then was released until this morning.

Condon was involved in an auto accident last March 7 near the intersection of the Fairfield Rd. and the road leading to the Lower Marsh Creek Church. Paul Calvin Jewsberry, 40, St. Louis, Mo., manufacturer and the owner of the car he was operating, and Albert E. Engle, Collingswood, N. J., were fatally injured in the crash. Condon was badly hurt.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, associate surgeon at the Warner Hospital, gave medical testimony this morning. William Yingling, Fairfield R. D., who resides near the scene of the crash, told the jury he had gone to his mailbox to pick up a newspaper when he saw the cars collide.

Ronald Shindledecker, Fairfield R. D., testified he was making a turn into the driveway at his home when the Condon car and the Jewsberry vehicles collided. Condon was headed toward Fairfield and apparently swung around the Shindledecker car and collided with the eastbound Jewsberry vehicle.

CARS COLLIDE

Cars operated by Clifford C. Reynold, 21, Hanover R. 4, and Jack F. Hertz, 16, Hanover, collided in Midway Sunday morning at 1:15 o'clock causing $150 damage. No one was hurt. Police said Hertz was slowing his vehicle to park when the Reynold car ran into its rear.

Commemorate Anniversary

President Eisenhower said today "America must continue to grow as the land of the free, with equal opportunity for all."

The President sent a letter, marking Equal Opportunity Day, to the Very Rev. James A. Pike. It was read by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, acting as special emissary to the dean, on the American Broadcasting Co. television program, "Dean Pike."

Equal Opportunity Day commemorates the 93rd anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

GIVE PROGRAM FOR CONCERT TUESDAY NIGHT

The program for the concert to be presented Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in Christ Chapel at Gettysburg College by Jule Zabawa, baritone, and Margaret Zabawa, soprano, was announced today. The couple will appear under the sponsorship of the Gettysburg College Concert and Lecture Series.

MR. AND MRS. ZABAWA

The program, which will be divided into four parts, will open with this group of duets: "Sound the Trumpets," Henry Purcell; "Spring Wind," Eric Thimon; "Under the Greenwood Tree," by Arthur Somervell, and "Benedictus," Paladihle.

The second section of the program also will be made up of duet numbers. It will include "Ah Dite alla Giovine" from "La Traviata" by Verdi; "La Ci Darem," "But Why Make Me Suffer?" from Don Gionanni by Mozart, and "Crudel Perche Finora," "Why Answer So Demurely?" from "Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart.

To Give Solo Group

Mr. Zabawa will appear as a soloist in the third division of the program and will present these numbers: "Simple Gifts," "By the River," and "The Dodger" by Aaron Copeland; "Suckin' Cider," by Ernest Bacon, and "I Ride the Great Black Horses" by John Duke.

Concluding the concert will be this group of duet selections: "Plaisir d'Amour" from "Romance" by Martini; "O My Horse Ain't Hungry," a Kentucky folk song; "Oh, No John, No John," English folk song; "The Deaf Woman's Courtship," Katherine David, and "Bess, Yo' Is My Woman Now" from "Porgy and Bess," by George Gershwin.

Jule Zabawa has sung in England and Europe; in a command performance for the Duke of Gloucester; with the National Symphony orchestra, Washington; in the National Art Gallery, Washington; for Mrs. Eisenhower at the Sulgrave Club, Washington, and many other places.

The concert is open to the public. There is no admission charge.

25 SENTENCED BY COURT HERE ON SATURDAY

Bernard Gebhart, New Oxford, who had pleaded guilty to a number Saturday by the Adams County court of morals charges, was sentenced to from 3½ to 7 years in the Eastern Penitentiary, "or such other institution as the state may desire to place him."

Gebhart was told by the court that it had considered giving him a life sentence under the second offenders act, but that the state Department of Welfare had not agreed to such a sentence.

Glenn Gerald Matthews, McSherrystown, also facing several morals charges, was sentenced to from 1½ to 3 years in the Eastern Penitentiary at Philadelphia.

Columbus Jenkins, Fairfield R. 1, who had pleaded guilty to two charges of forgery, was sentenced to from six to 12 months in Allegheny County Workhouse on each charge with the sentences to run concurrently. He was ordered to pay the costs and was told a parole will be considered at the end of six months if during that time he has paid the costs and made restitution of $267.90 for the four forged checks.

Jailed Fined $300

Eugene H. Guise, 48 Breckenridge St. and New Oxford, was sentenced to 15 days in jail on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a ward of the court, and was ordered to pay a fine of $300 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of furnishing beer to minors. A $300 fine plus the costs was levied on two others accused of furnishing beer to minors: Preston G. Speelman, Gettysburg R. 5, and Ronald R. Hepfer, 7 Hanover St.

Junior Myers, York St., charged with fleeing the custody of an officer, was sentenced to 60 days in the couny jail and was ordered to pay the costs. He was told a parole would be considered in 30 days if he agrees to "stay away from Dolores Shultz Pierce."

Escapes 30-Day Term

Twenty-five prisoners were removed from the court room to the Adams County jail in the Gettysburg Fire Department Rescue Truck Saturday afternoon following sentence court. 16 were new prisoners and nine were from a group of 11 men who had been in jail

Hungarians Continue Strike And Others Flee To Forests

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Soviets were reported today to be replacing their tank troops in Hungary with fresh infantry divisions. But defiant workers continued their general strike, and unyielding rebel partisan bands took to the forests.

Sources in Budapest told Austrian papers the Russians are sending in 20 infantry divisions to replace the hated Red panzers that crushed the anti-Communist revolt.

When the Russian tanks and bombers began their campaign two weeks ago to crash the lightly armed rebels, Soviet strength in Hungary was estimated at 11 armored and 2 infantry divisions.

The Russians apparently hope to achieve a double purpose in the shift to infantry. They will save on scarce fuel needed by the armored units and remove the main symbol of Soviet might that smashed Hungary's bid for freedom.

Violates Pride

Even Nep Szabadsag, newspaper of Soviet-imposed Premier Janos Kadar's government, said that "it violates Hungarian pride to see Soviet tanks rattling on our streets and their guns glaring at passers-by."

The general strike, the strongest weapon remaining in the people's hands, was admittedly paralyzing many parts of the country. Gyoergy Marosan, minister of state in Kadar's government, in a broadcast over the Budapest radio accused "Western imperialists" of trying to prolong the strike.

He claimed that "agitators are hampering by rumors and armed groups by terrorist acts and threats the resumption of work" in mines and factories.

Hungarian anger mounted at the reports of continuing mass deportations of rebels by the Soviet conquerors, to Russia or to concentration camps in remote part of Hungary.

Reds Change Story

The Budapent radio, which admitted deportations last week, changed its tune over the weekend. It claimed that "rumors of deportations, spread by the counterrevolutionaries, are without foundation. Not one single person has been deported to the Soviet Union." Later Budapest radio said that "counterrevolutionary elements and terrorists" had been rounded up and were being held "somewhere in the country."

Striking workers in Budapest challenged the disclaimer of deportations. One workers' leader told Western newsmen

"The memory of 1945, when the Russians took so many civilians to increase the number of their

Hit-Run Smashup Causes $700 Damage

A hit-and-run driver on Route 16, about one-half mile west of Zora, left James A. Pryor, 39, of Waynesboro, with $70 damage to his car and injuries to his forehead after an accident Saturday night at about 9 o'clock.

Pryor, who was driving west on Route 16, was hit from the rear by a car owned by Mark Creager, of Charmain, also traveling west. The impact of the collision forced Pryor into the guard rails at the side of the road. The driver of the Creager vehicle left the scene of the accident before state police arrived.

DEDICATION DAY BANQUET HELD HERE SATURDAY

In a joint program Saturday night at the Hotel Gettysburg the Past Commanders' and Past Presidents' Association of the Sons of Union Veterans held their 26th annual banquet program commemorating the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery and then were joined by others for the formal reception and dance held in honor of Chester S. Shriver, Gettysburg R. 4, newly elected commander of the Department of Pennsylvania, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War. One hundred twenty five were present for the dinner and approximately 250 for the reception afterward.

Joseph L. Rosensteel, historian and associate in the operation of the Gettysburg National Museum, was the principal speaker at the banquet. After describing the many Pennsylvania residents who as officers in the Army of the Potomac played prominent parts in the battle of Gettysburg, including the commander, General Meade, Rosensteel told the group: "When you think of the Gettysburg Address, you are thinking of a masterpiece expressed by an artist. Lincoln at Gettysburg was an artist expressing his love for his fellowman and his hope for good government. Lincoln here was interpreting God's words for us, to love our neighbors as ourselves. Today we should think over Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, and decide to live as he suggested. Lincoln did his work 93 years ago, now it is up to us."

Congressman-elect S. Walter Stauffer, making his first official visit after his election, told the group: "Concerning Mr. Rosensteel's talk, I wish that he might make that same address again someday before the Congress of the United States.

Recite Gettysburg Address

"When I was in Congress before, I sought to secure for the Gettysburg National Cemetery that piece of land that adjoins it to the north.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM AT HS ON WEDNESDAY

The annual Thanksgiving program for parents and students of the Gettysburg Junior-Senior High School will be held in the high school auditorium on Wednesday at 1 pm.

Approximately 170 students will participate in the program which includes a student-written play by Joan Lank, assisted by John Hewetson and Robert Ziegler. The theme for the program directed by Miss Ruth McIlhenny, senior English teacher, and Paul Grove, vocal director, will be "We Gather Together."

The program will open with the singing of "Come Ye Thankful People Come" by the Senior High Choir and the Ninth Grade Glee Club. These two singing groups with two soprano soloists, Sally Smith and Cecelia Dolly, will provide the musical setting to the Thanksgiving tableau and play. The accompanists will be Ann Jordan and Ruth Ann Knechel.

Will Recite Psalms

After a narration by Jon Wagnild, the choirs will sing "Let All Things Now Living." A choral group, composed of members from the first period Junior English class, will recite the 100th and 150th Psalms. Concluding the musical part of the program will be: "The Lord's Prayer," "Thanks Be to Thee," "We Gather Together," "Bless This House" and "This Is My Country." The "voice of Lincoln" will announce the Thanksgiving proclamation.

Students who will take part in the tableau will be: David Kime, Mary Luckenbaugh, Ralph Shyrock, Eugene Meade, Robert Ziegler, Mary Mason, Joyce Vanderwall, Jean Staiger, David Lott, Edith Boyer, Charles Cullison, Charles Bollinger, Forrect Craver and Glenn Little.

Students in the cast are Carolyn Raffensperger, Gene Hoak, Joan Lank, Janet Stuckey, Jack Crist, Sue Korte, Samuel Hartley and Paula Sheffer. Paula Sheffer will read President Eisenhower's Thanksgiving proclamation. Fred Smith will be in charge of the stage.

The public is invited to attend the program.

RESIDENTS HERE OWE $21,104.15 IN 1956 TAXES

Gettysburg residents have paid $236,515.91 so far on their current tax bill of $257,720.06.

Tax Collector J Herbert Weikert announced today that notices are being sent delinquent taxpayers of the November 30 deadline after which a five per cent penalty goes on school taxes and certain legal steps are mandatory concerning other taxes.

The state legislature in 1945 set up a law concerning collection of unpaid taxes including attachment of wages, sales of personal property and suits in county courts and the delinquent taxpayer not only finds himself paying his tax, but the additional costs of collection as well.

Of the $21,104.15 still to be paid in Gettysburg, most of it, $17,708.74, is in school taxes, on which a five per cent penalty will be added December 1.

Most Borough Tax Paid

Practically all of the $42,049.31 Gettysburg borough tax has been paid, with only $1,265.56 outstanding at the present time. Similarly $28,548.63 of the $29,993.77 in taxes levied by the county against Getholders has been paid.

Of the $12,855.20 in institution district tax sought from Gettysburgians, all but $620.11 has been paid.

Holders of personal property have the best record of quickly paying their tax. The levy was $13,500.95. All but $64.41 has been paid so far.

Largest amount still outstanding is for school tax. The school board is seeking $159,320.65 from Gettysburgians, and so far $141,611.91 has been paid, leaving a total of $17,708.74 to be collected.

York St. Garage Robbed Of Money

A pin ball machine was broken, cash taken from it and about $25 stolen from the Miller and Rose Garage, 650 York St., between Saturday night and early Sunday morning, borough poice said today.

William Miller of W. Middle St., part owner, reported burglars had entered the shop through a window at the rear of the building. Police, however, believe that the thief or thieves were hiding in the building Saturday night, waited until the proprietors closed, stole the money and left by the rear window. The window was open Sunday morning when police investigated. It had not been broken and did not show signs of hammering or force of any kind.

Three Killed In Flaming Runway Crash; 7 Injured

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A young pilot's tragic mistake is believed to have caused the flaming runway smashup of a jet fighter and two parked B47 bombers at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Three men died and seven were injured in the Saturday night accident. Loss in equipment is estimated at nearly eight million dollars.

Lt. Robert L. Young, 23, a University of Nebraska student who recently completed jet training with the Air National Guard, was practicing "touch and go" landings. As he roared out of the dark sky, authorities said, he apparently mistook a taxi ramp for a runway.

Young's F80 rammed the two Strategic Air Command B47s, which were being refueled, turning the ramp into an inferno. The pilot was killed.

The crew chief of one of the bombers and his assistant were also killed. They were A/1C John Lawrence Delancey, 21, whose home town is Chicago, and Donald Russell Price, 20, of Easton, Pa.

A/2C John Streicher, 19, Paterson, N.J., who was reported in critical condition after the accident, was described as "fair" last night. Three others remained in the hospital with lesser injuries.

U. S. SENATOR IN MISHAP HERE

Senator Wayne Morse, Democrat of Oregon, received slight injuries Sunday morning as a result of a three-car collision at the intersection of Carlisle St. and Lincoln Ave. The car, in which Morse was a passenger, was driven by James M. Brown, 68, Washington, D. C.

Brown, his vision obscured by a cattle truck behind which he was driving, drove through a red light. He was struck on the left rear fender by a car driven by John C. Showalker, Gettysburg R. 1, who was driving east. The impact of the collision swung Brown's car to the right and his rear fender struck the left front of a car driven by James E. Powell, 27, Washington, D. C. Powell was stopped at the intersection waiting for Showalker to cross. He was about to turn right into Route 15.

Damages to the three vehicles amounted to $225 for Brown, $50 to Showalker and $175 to Powell.

Because a friendly agreement had been reached, borough police said no charges were filed. All three cars were covered by insurance.

HEAD DAIRY CALF CLUB

Elizabeth Dorr, Gettysburg R. D., was named president of the Adams County 4-H Dairy Calf Club Friday evening at the court house. Miss Dorr and other officers elected at the meeting were incorrectly listed as the new officers of the 4-H Baby Beef Club in a story appearing Saturday. The Baby Beef Club will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the courthouse.

FLIGHT B TO MEET

A lecture on "The U.S. Air Force and the Community" will be given by Major Donald Lady at a regular meeting of Flight B, 9290th Air Reserve Squadron, at the AROTC building on the Gettysburg College campus this evening from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. Interested Air Reservists are invited to attend.

Engagements

Haas—Ragland

Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard Ragland, Roanoke, Va., have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Peggy Janice, to John Edward Haas, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Haas, of Philadelphia and Gettysburg.

Miss Ragland attended Roanoke College and was graduated from the Medical College of the Virginia School of Nursing in Richmond. She is a member of the staff of the Hun School, Princeton, N. J.

The prospective bridegroom, an alumnus of the Haverford School, also was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He served with the Atlantic Fleet during the Korean conflict and is a lieutenant in th Naval Reserve.

Mr. Haas is a marketing research analyst with CIBA Pharmeceutical Productts, Summit, N. J. Since the death of his parents when he was a child, he has made his home with his uncle, George Sachs, and his aunts, the Misses Grace and Martha Sachs, 325 Hanover St.

Man Is Fined $10 After Plane Crash

An Emmitsburg Air Force sergeant, John Paul Glass, who tried to fly a plane that was forced down on his father's farm and crashed it, was fined $10 Friday night for flying without a license.

Magistrate Edward J. Smith fined Glass and also found him not guilty of malicious destruction of property in the only hearing in Frederick County People's Court. Glass is stationed with the Air Force in Delaware.

Glass was heard on the charge arising when he flew a plane owned by Lewis Roehr, 22, Bethlehem, Pa. Roehr was forced down last September on the Glass farm on the Keysville road because of bad weather. Roehr left the plane on the farm with the consent of Glass' father.

RICHARD PENNINGTON

Richard Pennington, second son of Mrs. Franklin R. Bigham, 210 W. Broadway, has graduated from the U. S. Naval School, Pre-Flight, at the U. S. Naval Ar Station, Pensacola, Fla.

In a letter of congratulations to Pennington's mother, Captain H. S. Jackson, the school's commanding officer, wrote: 'During his 14-week pre-flight course, he has demonstrated by his attitude and intelligence that he possesses the high qualifications necessary to become a naval officer and pilot."

TWO MISSING IN PLANE CRASH

WASHINGTON (AP)—A small Air Force plane ditched in the Potomac River 15 miles south of here last night. Two of its three officer passengers were missing.

The third man, Lt. Richard B. Perlich, 36 of McLean, Va., was quoted as saying all three escaped when the plane hit the water but that his companions disappeared while trying to swim to shore in the icy water.

Listed as missing were Maj. Gen. James C. Selser, 44, of New Orleans, attached to the staff of the National Security Council; and Maj. Jose Blondet, 34, of Guayama, Puerto Rico, commander of the 1104th Base Flight Squadron at Bolling Air Force Base here.

The two-engine plane was en route from Dobbins Air Force Base near Atlanta to Washington and reported to Bolling that it was in trouble. It went into the water about 600 feet offshore at a point several miles up the Potomac from Mount Vernon.

Perlich, an instructor pilot at Bolling, swam to store. He was treated for shock and exposure.

Crash boats and helicopters searched the scene without success for the other two officers.

The plane wreckage was located in about 10 or 12 feet of water.

First Refugees Due On Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today the first plane load of Hungarian refugees, leaving Vienna today, will arrive at McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey shortly before 1 p.m. EST tomorrow.

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, said word had come from Vienna that some 70 people will be on this first plane.

The aircraft has been chartered from the Flying Tiger Line by the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration, Hagerty said. This international committee, he said, is bearing the expense of transporting the 5,000 Hungarians whom President Eisenhower has offered refuge in the United States. The United States and other countries contribute to the committee.

Other plane loads of Hungarians will arrive as fast as the planes can be ferried across the Atlantic, Hagerty said. He said he understood there will be two or three more Wednesday and several others Thursday.

"A RIGHTEOUS START"

How far we go in life depends . . . upon how well we start . . . success itself is based upon . . . the basic steps we chart . . . just as a house must set upon foundations that are strong . . . we humans must begin just right . . . or else we might go wrong . . . the race is lost before we start . . . if we do not prepare . . . for training must be adequate . . . of that we are aware . . . it's true, plans often go amiss . . . but still it pays to plan . . . then temper it with golden faith . . . . . and do the best we can . . . we older folks should school our young . . . so that the future years . . . will not be filled with misery . . . and endless doubts and fears . . . and so we all should bear in mind . . . to make a righteous start . . . and we will be rewarded with . . . a peaceful happy heart.

25 SENTENCED

awaiting sentence. There are now 31 prisoners in jail which is designed to hold 40.

Donald R. Lockard, Hanover, escaped the traditional "30 days" sentence for driving while under the influence of intoxicants. He was sentenced to 10 days and fined $50 because he was walking with a cane after having suffered two broken legs in a fall while working as a tree surgeon.

Lawrence F. Myers, McSherrystown, was sentenced to 30 days and ordered to pay $50 for the use of the county for driving while under the influence. The same sentence was given Joe N. Baughman, Littlestown; George A. Trish, Hanover; Thomas Jefferson Lamb, Gardners R. 2, and Elmer Russell Coleman, Westminster R. 3, when they appeared on "drunken driving" charges.

Joseph V Watson, Mercersburg, was ordered to pay $5 a week for the support of a child, after sentence was suspended on a morals charge and he was directed to post the usual $500 bond on his own recognizance

Suspended Sentence

Henry R. Leatherman, Gettysburg R. 2, was given a suspended sentence and ordered to pay $150 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of driving while his operator's license was suspended.

William Donbach Jr. and Willard Stewart Hughes Jr., both of Harrisburg, were each sentenced to 30 days in jail on charges of larceny of a beagle hound.

Donback and Hughes said they had driven to near Gettysburg where Hughes planned to purchase a beagle hound. They found the owner of the kennel absent and continued to a nearby bar. Later they found the owner of the dogs was still absent and, according to Donbach, "decided he had more dogs than he needed" and took one with them. Hughes said the two had come to Gettysburg "with honest intentions." Hughes, who drove the car, was sentenced to pay $150 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of operating his car while his license was suspended.

Lowell Eisenhart, Hanover, facing a morals charge, was freed under a settlement agreement by which he posted $1,000 bond to pay the costs and deposited $3,500 with the probation officer which will go to the mother of the child.

Must Make Restitution

Five young men charged with malicious mischief: Philip Eugene Fitz, Waynesboro; Eugene Paul Kreitz, Richard Irvin Kreitz, Wilmont Charles Minnich and Robert Kreitz, all of Pen Mar, were given suspended sentences on condition they pay the costs and make restitution of $75 to the owner of a summer home near Fountaindale where they had caused damage during a party held there during the owner's absence. All, with the exception of Richard Irvin Kreitz, were also ordered to pay $50 each for the use of the county.

Edward Nevin Keefer, Aspers, was given a suspended sentence on condition he pay $50 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of operating a car after suspension of his license.

Sentence on Bonifacio Rivera, Gardners R. 1, in jail since October 1 on a morals charge, was suspended on condition he pay the costs.

Sentence of Carroll George Funk, McSherrystown, charged with larceny of four hub caps, was suspended and he was placed on probation for one year provided he pays $100 for the use of the county and his driver's license is suspended for one year.

Other Sentences

Francis Joseph Tankosic, S. Washington St., charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 14-year-old girl, and who had been in jail since September 22, was sentenced to six months in jail, starting as of that date, and then was placed on parole for one year. One of the condition is that he remain away from the girl.

Ramon G. Perez, 256 S. Washington St., charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old girl, was sentenced to 25 days in jail starting October 22. It was said that the couple had attempted to get married at Hagerstown.

Earl Eugene Barber, Sharpsburg R. 1, who had pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary and larceny, was sentenced to from 30 days to 1 year, and then placed on parole on condition he make restitution of $202 taken in burglaries in the county. He had been in jail since August, and had previously served nine months on similar charges in Maryland. The 20-year-old youth had been one of five juveniles who had burglarized a number of service stations and other places in five states.

"enjoy yourself on Holidays"

let ELECTRICITY do the work...

Modern mothers in modern electric kitchens have it far easier when it comes to preparing and serving a holiday dinner.

Things like desserts, cakes, cookies, soups can be prepared and stored days ahead in a modern electric freezer. The traditional turkey can be stuffed, frozen and stored.

Then, when the time comes, an automatic electric range takes over. Put the turkey or roast in the oven, set the dials and you're free to spend the morning with the family and friends.

And when dinner's over there's that wonderful automatic electric dishwasher patiently waiting to do the hardest job of all.

In no time at all you're out of the kitchen and free to enjoy the day.

...you live better when you live electrically

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Gettysburg: County Matters — Josiah Benner, Esq., was sworn in as County Commissioner, a few weeks since, and took his seat in the Board. James J. Wills, Esq., is the retiring Commissioner. We give but utterance to public opinion when we say, that few men have filled that office with more integrity and capability than Mr. Wills, and he goes out of the office to the regret of all who had intercourse with him. Mr. Benner is a man of intelligence, and we have no doubt will make a good officer.

The new Board has made the following appointments: Clerk, Jesse D. Walter; Attorney E. B. Buehler, Esq.; Keeper of the Courthouse, Michael Rupp.

Mr. Wolf took his seat as Director of the Poor on Monday week. Joseph Bayly, Esq., is the retiring Director — a man whose high reputation for honesty and integrity, and conscientious discharge of duty is the theme of every man's remark in this community, be he political friend or foe. — The appointments of Steward, Clerk and Treasurer will be made at the December meeting, we believe.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Sales: Last week the executors of estate of Thaddeus Stevens, deceased, sold the following mountain land in Franklin township: 11 acres and 86 perches to Harriet Kane at $8.50 per acre; 14 acres 45 perches to Levi Minter at $7.25; 10 acres to same at $7.20; 81 acres 124 perches to Absalom Slonaker at $7.60; 81 acres 124 perches to Wm. Verdieu at $6.00; 84 acres 29 perches to Daniel Kuhn, in five tracts, at from $2.10 to $5.10; 29 acres 80 perches to H. L. Bream at $8.65; 8 acres 80 perches to Jacob Lentz at $5.70.

Ex-Sheriff Spangler has sold to J. Willis Swope about 22 acres, near Bonneauville, for $915 cash.

Daniel Spangler, Straban, has sold his farm to Jacob Epley, 160 acres, at $50 per acre.

Samuel Dubs sold his farm in Highland township, 7 acres with improvements, to John Wilson at $200 cash.

Sudden Death: On Friday morning, while William Shillen, of this place, shoe-maker, was preparing some kindling wood to start a fire, he complained of not feeling well, and returned to bed. The family physician was sent for, but Mr. S. died in about half an hour. We understand that for some time he had been troubled with disease of the heart. He was 63 years of age, and held the position of messenger in the courts of the county.

Arendtsville Items: Heavy frosts, succeeded by rain, were the order of the day here last week.

Mr. John Spangler, of Lee County, Illinois, is visiting his brother, Mr. Elias Spangler of this place.

The new church building in ths place is now ready for roofing. The large posts for the belfry are also in position.

Mr. Jackson Miller and Hanson P. Mark have bought out Capt. Plank's interest in the undertaking business and will carry it on here in the future. L

Local Items: Senator Hereter has been quite ill for several weeks, but is now improving.

Today's Talk

I VOTED

Always the proudest moment in my life, at the time, is when I vote. I voted November 6th, and as I came out of the booth, where I marked my wishes and convictions, I couldn't help but recall the despair, suffering and death in Hungary, where there were abject slavery and the murdering of innocent human beings, for no cause at all. How those people would be overjoyed to be able to live in a country that was free, with the private voting booth in which to enter and record their wishes as to their kind of life and government.

I thought of those famous words of Patrick Henry, in the old Colonial days, when he cried in words that have encircled the globe, "Give me liberty, or give me death!" That is why America is free today. Men were willing to die — and did — that they might be free and live in a land with no restrictions as to color, religion or nationality. In America all are as one in citizenship.

The gift of the vote is one of the treasures of this citizenship. It is the silent voice of democracy. This is one of the great gifts of freedom. It is a privilege that should never be neglected. I have never been able to understand the indiffence of a person toward exercising the opportunity of voting. What wouldn't many people give just to be able to vote their convictions in a secret booth.

Voting, just at the few times when I have the privilege, gives me a sense of responsibility and fills me with pride for having been born free in a free land. I am glad that women now may vote, and I am for giving the vote to the youth of our land as soon as the age of 18 has been reached. For so long as they offer up their lives to fight for the freedom that they enjoy, certainly they deserve the vote!

BOBBY LAYNE SPARKS LIONS TO 27-3 WIN

By JIM KENSIL
The Associated Press

Pro football has apparently found a successor to Otto Graham, but he won't do Cleveland Coach Paul Brown a yard of good. He plays for the Detroit Lions.

For almost a decade, Graham, the fabulous quarterback of the Browns, was the game's glory boy, a role which falls traditionally to the leading quarterback. Only twice in the last nine years did Graham fail to win All-Pro honors — in 1950 when the Chicago Bears' Johnny Lujack, now retired, picked up the marbles and in 1952 when Bobby Layne of the Detroit Lions was honored.

And now it's Layne again who has emerged as the top headliner in the National Football League. He's sparked the Lions, Western Division tailenders in 1955, all season and yesterday he again played the major role as the Lions whipped Baltimore 27-3 in the Motor City. The win kept the Lions (7-1) tied for the division lead with the Chicago Bears, who won their seventh straight, 30-21 over the visiting Los Angeles Rams.

Trouble From Redskins

Late-starting Washington continued to cause trouble in the East. The Redskins, who lost their first three games, have now won four in a row, the latest a smashing 33-7 against the New York Giants, division pacesetters, yesterday at Washington. The Giants (6-2) managed to hold the whole top rung only because the Chicago Cards (5-3) lost in Pittsburgh 14-7 to the Steelers.

The Browns, who have been floundering all season — their first without the great Graham — stopped the host Philadelphia Eagles 16-0 to move into a three-way tie for fourth in the East. The Eagles, Browns and Steelers are all 3-5.

Fourth spot in the West was also tossed into a three-way deadlock. The San Francisco 49ers traveled to Green Bay for a battle of the have-nots and edged the Packers 17-16. The Rams, 49ers and Packers are all 2-6 behind Baltimore's 3-4.

Big Day On Sunday

Yesterday Layne passed for one touchdown and kicked two field goals and three conversions. His passing allowed Leon Hart and Gene Gedman to score on the ground after the Colt defense had been shot full of aerials.

Lou Baldacci and Fran Rogel were the backfield troublemakers for the Steelers. They gained 222 of 241 Steeler yards, while a fine Pittsburgh defense stopped the Cards' Ollie Matson with 13 yards rushing in 13 carries. Matson, however, scored on a 45-yard pass from Lamar McHan in the final period. Pitt's Gary Glick, who converted twice, suffered a possible fractured cheek.

Los Groza booted three field goals in the Browns' victory and added the conversion following Tommy O'Connell's 31-yard scoring pass to Maurice Bassett.

Sportswriters Make Annual Selections

Members of the South Penn Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association held heir annual fall meeting Sunday afternoon at the offices of station WHVR, Hanover, and made selections for the official South Penn All-Conference football team. Selections will be announced Friday.

Edouard Greinier, of the Hanover Evening Sun and Tom Smyser, WHVR, were appointed to a committee to make arrangements for the presentation of a sportsmanship award to the school displaying the best sportsmanship during the basketball season.

Seventeen ballots were cast in the all-conference football selections, highest number since the formation of the association. Six newspapers, two radio stations, one school representative and all eight coaches of the confeence cast balots.

Jesse Garber, Waynesboro Record Herald, pqresided as president.

The annual February meeting will be held in the offices of The Carlisle Sentinel.

BISONS PRESS HERSHEY BEARS

The Buffalo Bisons, thanks to a brilliant performance by goalie Harry Lumley, were in second place in the American Hockey League today and breathing hot on the necks of the pacesetting Hershey Bears.

Lumley turned in 30 saves, many of them brilliant, last night as the Bisons whipped Providence, 4-2, and climbed past the Reds in the standings. The victory ended a three-game losing streak for Buffalo which got a clinching goal from Pete Conacher in the final.

In the only other game played, the Rochester Americans moved into sole possession of fifth place by edging Springfield, 4-3. Bronco Horvath scored the winning goal midway in the third period.

Hershey, which was not scheduled, holds a one-point lead over Buffalo.

NAME WALSACK CAGE CAPTAIN

Robert W. Walsack, 24-year-old junior from Newark, N. J., has been named captain of the 1956-57 Gettysburg College basketball team according to an announcement this week from head coach Bob Davies.

Walsack, a graduate of Newark's Central High School, was a starting forward on last year's team and was considered Gettysburg's best defensive player. The 6-1, 185 pounder also turned in a commendable offensive job by scoring 233 points in 22 games for a 10.6 average. He hit on 85 of 218 field goal attempts for a .39 percentage, and made 63 of 91 foul tries. His 105 rebounds mode him the team's No. 3 man in that department.

Good Playmaker

Converted this season to a backcourt performer, Walsack possesses a fine shot. He is a good playmaker, hard driver, and a better than average ball handler.

A physical education major and social studies minor, Walsack served three years with the Marine Corps before entering Gettysburg. He was with the Marines in Korea during 1951 and 1952.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A sandwich shop near Philadelphia's Wagner Junior High School has put this sign in the window:

NEHRU ASSERTS RED PRESTIGE IS HURT IN EUROPE

NEW DELHI (AP)—In his strongest criticism so far of Soviet action in Hungary, Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament today Russia's prestige had been "powerfully affected . . . in Eastern European countries, in noncommitted countries and even among people in the Soviet Union itself."

Opening a two-day foreign affairs debate, Nehru said details of what has happened in Hungary are not clear but "it is evident the government of Hungary is not a free but an imposed government, and the people are not satisfied with it."

Is Big Failure

"If in the course of 10 years the Hungarian people could not be converted to Soviet ideas," he continued, "it shows a certain failure which is a far greater failure than any military coup."

Nehru said he had "no doubt" that the Hungarian people seeking freedom were "bound to triumph."

Nehru complained about the "confusing" picture in both Hungary and Egypt and said "qualified impartial observers" from the United Nations should go too those countries to "bring out the facts and open the window so the world can find out what has happened and what is happening."

Asks Direct Question And Gets An Answer

WICKENBURG, Ariz. (AP)—Seeking action on a long overdue bill, automobile dealer Bernard Hill wrote the following letter to a customer:

"Dear friend, what would all your neighbors think if we came to your town and repossessed your car?"

The customer wrote back:

"I have taken this matter up with my neighbors and they all think it would be a lousy trick."

Wants Ike To Hypnotize Turkey

RENO, Nev. (AP) — A hypontist has telegraphed President Eisenhower suggesting that he "lead the nation in a humane Thanksgiving" by putting his turkey in a trance before the ax falls.

"This is easily done by first talking to him (the bird) softly, laying his head quietly on the ground where you stretch a piece of white string," messaged Arthur Ellen.

"His eyes focus on the string, thereby allaying his fears and virtually putting him to sleep. The bird is not frightened at the time of the execution, tastes better due to the absence of adrenalin in the bloodstream and plucks easier becaus the muscles holding the feathers are relaxed."

Capitani Leads Bullets To 21-0 Win Over Diplomats; Seventh In Row For Locals

A brilliant individual performance by Frank Capitani, aided and abetted by a solid Bullet defense, highlighted Gettysburg College's 21-0 victory over Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster Saturday before nearly 7,000.

Capitani scored touchdowns on runs of 21 and 40 yards in amassing 175 yards in 25 carries. The Bullets rock-ribbed defense limited F. and M. to 50 yards rushing and 27 yards passing. Capitani had a large share in the defensive play, too.

The victory was Gettysburg's seventh straight and concluded the season with seven wins and two losses. F. and M. closed its year with five wins, two defeats and a tie. It also marked Gettysburg's 30th victory as against 24 defeats and five ties in its series with F. and M. that started in 1890.

Line Work Oustanding

At the beginning of the football season, it was known that Gettysburg had the backs but it was questionable if the Bullets would have a line to go with them. The Bullet defense was one of the highlights of the year and ranked among the best in the country.

George Darrah, F. and M. sophomore halfback, went into Saturday's game needing only 18 yards to tie the school record of 533 yards net gain rushing for one season. The Bullet forwards harassed him all afternoon and he could net but eight yards in seven carries.

Two of Coach John Yovicsin's gridders — Don Harman and Dave Lichtenfeld — were treated for injuries suffered in the game at the F. and F. infirmary and discharged. Harman was treated for laceration of the left hand while Lichtenfeld suffered a broken middle finger in the left hand. Don Hailey was also injured early in the game so that number three left halfback George Greiner saw considerable action.

The Bullets won the toss and elected to receive. In six tries they moved the ball to their own 33 from where Capitani punted to Powell on the home 34 and Powell was downed immediately by Bill Ward.

Diplomats Hold

The Diplomats lost two yards in three carrier and Darran punted to the Gettysburg 34. The Bullets threatened for the first time as Hailey raced for six and five on two tries. After Yost and Hailey gained by three, Hailey took a pitchout and sprinted around left end to the Diplomat 10. Here F. and M. held and took over on their own 11.

Hailey was injured midway in the first quarter and was replaced by Lichtenfeld who in turn was injured and replaced by Greiner near the close of the quarter.

Whether Capitani was angered when roughed up by the opponents immediately in front of the Gettysburg bench, or whether he realized that he must take the place of Hailey is unknown, but is was certainly evident that starting with the second quarter, the Hershey fullback put on a tremendous one-man offensive show.

Capitani Takes Over

The Bullets took over on their own 30 at the conclusion of the first quarter following a punt. Yost and Capitani added a first down on the Gettysburg 42. After Capitani gained three around right end and Greiner hit right tackle, Chike Heverly connected with Art Hendley on an eight-yard aerial for a first down on the Diplomat 46. Capitani bulled his way for four through left tackle and then added nine more around left end. With the ball on the 21 Capitani bolted through the left tackle slot and raced 21 for the touchdown in 5:10. Harry Binger added the extra point with a perfect placement.

The next time the Bullets had the ball, Capitani continued his one-man show as he carried 52 yards in three carries, the last one through right tackle for 40 and a score. Heverly placekicked the extra point.

Coach Woody Sponaugle must have used his best oratory at halftime for the Diplomats came roaring back. After receiving the kickoff they drove to the Gettysburg 29 before they were repulsed. Gettysburg couldn't get anywhere in three carries and Capitani went back to punt but his kick was blocked by Charles Havens, son of Western Maryland coach Charles Havens, and Hamilton ran it back to the Bullet 13. F. and M. was penalized 15 for illegal use of hands and Heverly intercepted Powell's pass to end the threat.

Heverly-Ward Pass

Midway in the final perido the Bullets moved from their 26 for their third and final score with the payoff play being a pass from Heverly to Bill Ward for 19 yards. It was a beautifully-executed play with Ward all by himself in the Diplomate end zone. Binger added the extra point.

Gettysburg graduates nine seniors from its squad, eight of whom saw action Saturday. They are: Bill Ward, Art Hendley and Larry Davies at the ends; Jerry Harrell and Joe Robinski, guards, and Earl Yost, Chike Heverly, Dave Lichtenfeld and Bob Lebo in the backfield.

MAJOR MYSTERY IS DEVELOPING AT MELBOURNE

By TED SMITS

MELBOURNE (AP) — A major mystery developed today with the opening of the Olympic Games only four days away. Police were searching for pretty Nina Paranyuk, Russian stewardess aboard the Soviet Olympic liner Gruzia.

She vanished while touring the Melbourne zoo yesterday with a group of Russians.

There has been speculation the members of some of the Iron Curtain teams may jump camp and seek refuge in Australia, particularly the Hungarians, but there was no indication the Russian girl had defected.

The games of the XVI Olympiad had been plagued by political overtones, some stemming from the revolution in Hungary. But despite this, 4,360 athletes and officials from 66 nations are on hand awaiting the solemn opening Thursday.

For the competitors, worries over politics were secondary to the problem of the weather. Today saw a sudden morning shower, blustery winds and noontime temperatures in the 60's despite a bright sun.

Flag trouble continued to haunt these games. First the wrong flag for Nationalist China was run up Then came a squabble over the hammer and sickle on the Hungarian flag. Today the great Olympic flag that hung over the stage at City Hall was reversed with the red ring on the left instead of the blue.

The demand for admission tickets boiled over at the Olympic pool. Police reinforcements were called to control the crowd after groups of fans tried to crash queues of about 10,000 people waiting to buy tickets for swimming practice.

A capacity crowd of 110,000 is assured for opening day Thursday.

Competition in the games starts Thursday night with basketball games between Korea and Formosa, and Russia and Canada. The United States five meets Japan the following evening. Track and field starts Friday.

WESTMINSTER ONLY UNBEATEN TEAM IN STATE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Football has faded from the scene in all but four Pennsylvania colleges but such names as Harold Davis, Jim Villa, Bill Berrier, George Dintiman, Dan Nolan, John Costello and Dom Garda still will bring a tingle of excitement to the fans who sat in on Saturday's last big round of games.

Davis quarterbacked Westminster to its eighth straight victory, 48-0, over Carnegie Tech, leaving the Titans the state's only unbeaten squad.

Villa scored four times — all his team's points — as Allegheny downed Dickinson, 24-19. The touchdowns gave Villa a season's total of 96 points and the state scoring championship.

Scores Three TDs

Berrier tallied three times as Juniata swamped Ursinus, 33-6. Dintiman was a four-touchdown star in Lock Haven's 33-7 triumph over Mansfield. Nolan ran for three touchdowns to lead Lehigh to a 27-0 victory over Lafayette in the 92nd renewal of the oldest rivalary in football.

Costello, of PMC, and Garda, of Lebanon valley, ignored the steady drizzle which descended on the PMC field at Chester and they fired 45 passes. Costello completed 18 of 23 for four touchdowns in masterminding his team's 40-25 victory. But Garda was impressive in completing 16 of 22 for three touchdowns.

Pitt sharpened up for its showdown this Saturday with Penn State for the unofficial title of state champion by defeating Army 20-7, with Corny Salvaterra scoring the first touchdown, setting up the second and passing for the third.

Tough For State

Penn State had an unexpectedly tough time with North Carolina State in a game that was scoreless until almost the final three minutes. Then Billy Kane plunged for a Nittany Lions touchdown; the Wolfpack's Bill Franklin evened it with a 9-yard pass to Bob Pepe, and Kane threw a 9-yard strike to Les Walters in the Wolfpack end zone with only 15 seconds left that made it 14-7.

Penn, which ends it season on Thanksgiving Day with traditional rival Cornell, defeated hapless Columbia, 20-6.

The only other state team still in practice is Lincoln, which meets Howard Thursday. Lincoln was idle last Saturday.

Grid Trophy Presented

Biglerville High School's Laurel Conference football champions were honored during the assembly program this morning at the school.

Eugene Haas, a member of the Gettysburg College coaching staff and former Biglerville High School coach, was the guest speaker. He stressed four important points in the success of a football squad, the heart to play football, desire to win, ability to lose and then come back, and all around sportsmanship.

Arthur M. Gordon, school athletic director, presided. He expressed his appreciation to the students, fans, faculty, coaches and all for their fine support and efforts in making the past season so successful.

Clair Settle, Biglerville Junior High School coach, introduced the members of his squad. Roderick Laird is the assistant coach.

Tom Faulkner, who in his first year as Biglerville coach, piloted the Canners to the Laurel Conference record and an overall mark of 7-1-1, introduced the members of the squad. Donald Sterner, line coach, spoke briefly in lauding the team for its fine play.

Trophies For School

Prof. Charles L. Yost received three awards on behalf of the school.

The Laurel Conference trophy was presented by Ralph Mentzer, guard; the football used in the Boiling Springs game, won by Biglerville 13-12, by Don Hartzell, end; and the football used in the Littlestown game, won by he Canners 13-6, by James May, back. Mentzer, Hartzell and May were named to the All-Star squad of the conference last week.

The Biglerville band played several selections during the program.

Concluding the program was the singing of the Alma Mater by the student body to the accompaniment of the band.

Mrs. Luce Resigns Ambassadorial Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce resigned today as ambassador to Italy. President Eisenhower accepted the resignation with an expression of "great personal regret" and congratulations for "a job superbly done."

The White House announced the resignation after Mrs. Luce had conferred with the President for an hour.

The effective date of the resignation was left up in the air. But Mrs. Luce told reporters she plans to return to Italy and to leave her post after the Christmas holidays. She said she supposed the resignation would be effective "when a new ambassador is appointed."

BULLETS GIVEN HONOR BY MULE FOOTBALL SQUAD

ALLENTOWN, Pa.—Hofstra and Gettysburg dominate the all-opponent team seelcted by the Muhlenberg gridders, who have now completed their season.

The Flying Dutchman and the Bullets each placed three men on the mythical eleven. Two Temple players were chosen, and Lafayette, F.&M., and Scranton were represented by one ball player.

Five men were unanimous choices —Tackle, Matt Dobrowolski, Temple; guard Reid Wamser, Hofstra; end, Bob Hudak, Temple; fullback, Frank Capitani, Gettysburg, and halfback, Dave Provenzano, Hofstra.

First Team

The selections:

Ends—Bill Ward, Gettysburg; Bob Hudak, Temple.

Tackles—Matt Dobrowolski, Temple; George Dilliard, F&M.

Guards—Joe Harrell, Gettysburg; Reid Wamser, Hofstra.

Center—Norig Ellison, Lafayette.

Backs—Larry Magilligan, Hofstra; Dave Provenzano, Hofstra; Frank Capitani, Gettysburg; John Potkul, Scranton.

Center—John Mishko, Albright.

Backs—Charles Heverley, Gettysburg; George Darrah, F.&M.; Dick Smith, Lebanon Valley; Jack Slotter, Lafayette.

ONLY 5 TEAMS SEEM SURE OF BIDS TO BOWLS

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Instead of thinning out, as they should at this late stage of the college football season, the ranks of contenders for the major post season bowl games swelled a bit over the weekend.

The only definite bowlers, at the moment, are Colorado, headed for the Orange Bowl; Iowa and Oregon State, tagged for the Rose Bowl; and Tennessee, apparently able to pick either the Cotton or Sugar Bowl.

And you probably can put Georgia Tech in that class too since a sixth consecutive bid seems assured for the Wrecks, beaten only by Tennessee (6-0). A Tech-Vol rematch in the Sugar Bowl would be a dandy.

Confused Picture

But beyond those five, the picture is as confused as SMU's Charlie Arnold was Saturday (he threw a "perfect" pass to an Arkansas player standing alone on the goal line).

Clemson was figured a sure bet to be the Atlantic Coast Conference's entry in the Orange Bowl against Colorado. But with Clemson's 21-0 thumping by Miami (Fla.), the team that's bowl-banned by the NCAA, South Carolina and Duke have popped into the picture as possibly being the ACC's "most representative team."

Clemson (5-1 with two ties) plays Virginia Saturday and Furman Dec. 1.

TCU, SMU In Scrap

South Carolina (6-3) finishes against Wake Forest Thursday, Duke (4-4 with one tie) against North Carolina Saturday. South Carolina beat Maryland 13-0 Saturday. Duke beat Wake Forest 26-0.

Texas Christian, Southern Methodist and Baylor are in on the scrap for the host spot in the Cotton Bowl. The Southwest Conference champ usually gets that berth, but the front-runner, Texas A&M, is in bad with the NCAA. That leaves it to the runner-up.

TCU has lost only once in the conference (to A&M) and plays Rice this week, SMU the next. SMU and Baylor already have dropped two in the conference and battle to stay alive in a showdown this weekend.

The Gator Bowl, usually accorded the "leftovers" apparently has a good crop of contenders to chose from. In the East alone, there's Pitt, which beat Army 20-7; Syracuse; and perhaps Penn State and Navy. Also under consideration are unbeaten Wyoming, the Skyline champ, and the Southwest's third-place team.

Iowa Beats Ohio State

Colorado, beaten by Oregon (35-0) and Oklahoma (27-19) and tied by Missouri (14-14), downed Utah 21-7 Saturday and made it to the Orange Bowl as the Big Seven conference runner-up. Oklahoma, now a nine-time champ of the league, is banned from a consecutive repeat.

With Iowa, beaten only by Michigan (17-14), having locked up the Big Ten's Rose Bowl berth (except for formal approval), only the conference title remains to be decided. Iowa gained at least a share by defeating Ohio State 6-0, and should Michigan beat OSU this week, Iowa gets it all. Ohio State is barred from the bowl.

Oregon State, which beat Idaho 14-10 Saturday, needs only a formal pat on the back from the Pacific Coast Conference to enter the Rose Bowl. The Beavers can lock up the PCC title by beating Oregon Thanksgiving Day.

In the Ivy League, Yale can clinch the group's first official title by defeating Harvard Saturday after knocking off Princeton, 42-20.

HART FIGHTING TONIGHT AT SAINT NICK'S

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Al (Sugar) Hart, 21-year-old welterweight from Philadelphia who attracted rave notices in his last start, continues his campaign for Rookie of the Year honors tonight at St. Nicholas Arena in New York against Hector Constance of Trinidad.

Hart, winner of 17 of 18 with 15 knockouts, stopped Earl Dennis Oct. 15.

Constance, never stopped in 43 starts, has a 25-9-9 record.

Du Mont will telecast in some regions.

DeMarco On Friday

Tony DeMarco, the Boston slugger who has been a stranger to Madison Square Garden since his prelim boy days in 1951, comes back Friday to take on tough Gaspar Ortega of Mexico City in a TV bout.

Ike Chestnut, a knockout winner over Carmelo Costa June 27 at Washington, will try to bounce back from defeats by Miguel Berrios and Gil Cadilli in the feather sweepstakes in a Hollywood, Calif., television match Wednesday with Tommy Bain of Indianapolis.

Vary that tossed green salad by adding membrane-free orange segments and paper-thin onion rings. Delectable combination!

MORE THAN 200 PARTICIPATE IN DEFENSE ALERT

More than 200 took part Sunday afternoon in a state authorized Civil Defense test at Centennial, which brought fire trucks from 13 fire companies into the eastern part of the county and sent rescue trucks, ambulance, auxiliary police, fire police, first aid and welfare units from various sections of the county into action.

The test was described by William G. Weaver, county Civil Defense chief, as "very successful."

John Murren, Hanover R. D., county fire marshal and county Civil Defense fire chief, was in charge of the exercises.

Fire trucks were called from Centennial, McSherrystown, Midway, Irishtown, Brushtown, Littlestown, Kingsdale, Bonneauville, New Oxford, Abbottstown, Conewago and Fairfield in Adams County and Pennville in York County.

East Berlin sent its "water wagon" and Gettysburg, Littlestown and Hanover fire departments sent rescue rucks while McSherrystown and New Oxford provided ambulances.

The test started at 1:20 o'clock Sunday afternoon when CD Fire Chief Murren sent word by the county's Civil Defense radio network that "fire bombs have been dropped near Centennial," and asked certain aid to meet the simulated emergency.

Fire trucks began rolling immediately from various part of the county and during the next several hours were assigned to "extinguish" three simulated fires in various parts of the county as part of the test. All of the activities were controlled by two-way radio.

Two separate relays were setup by the firemen from various sources of water and put into operation. Auxiliary police from the participating fire companies were present to direct traffic.

A first aid station was set up in the Centennial fire house under the direction of Mrs. Charles Weaver. Boy Scouts and men from Pleasant Hill served as casualties and were removed from the scene of the "emergency" to the Centennial firehouse by the ambulances and rescue trucks present. Mrs. Margaret Smith, Centennial, was in charge of welfare services under direction of Mrs. John Diehl and Mrs. Pearl Wiser of Gettysburg, acting county CD welfare chiefs.

Refreshments was served by the ladies of the Centennial fire company.

Evangelist Will Speak At Harney

B. L. Turner, an evangelist from Vancouver, Wash., will be guest speaker at evangelistic meeting at the Harney Recreation Center, Harney, next Wednesday through Sunday. Meetings will be held every evening except Friday at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Turner, who established a church of Christ in Vancouver about ten years ago, has been preaching there. For the last three years he has also been associated with other ministers in Portland, Ore., in an evangelist training program at that place. Turner is presently attending the University of Pennsylvania where he is taking special work in preparation for evangelistic work in West Pakistan. He is a graduate of San Jose Bible College, San Jose, Calif., and has done additional work at the University of Oregon.

Littlestown Soldier Home From Hawaii

Pfc. Ersa F. Six, second son of Mrs. Vallie Six, Littlestown R. 1, along the Taneytown-Littlestown Rd., received his discharge from the U.S. Army recently at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and returned home, after two years in the service. Eighteen months of that time was spent in Hawaii where he was attached to a Field Artillery Battalion.

He is residing with his mother and is employed on a construction job at the Lehigh Cement plant at Union Bridge Md.

He traveled from Schofield Barracks in Hawaii to San Francisco by boat and then flew to Chicago for his Fort Sheridan discharge.

DEDICATION DAY

I hope sincerely that during this current term we can add that piece of land to the cemetery. I shall do everything I can during the next two years to work toward that end." John H. Runkle, Harrisburg, past commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans, was toastmaster at the dinner.

Joseph Molnar, of the local Lutheran Seminary, gave the invocation. Ivan Frantz, York, president of the Past Commanders and the Past Presidents Association, gave the address of welcome and Charles B. Crossley, a past president of the association, led the group in recitation Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Those who spoke briefly and introduced officers of their organizations included Mrs. Margaret McKinney, national president of the auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans; Mrs. Bertha Brown, Allentown, department president of the Women's Relief Corps; Mrs. Margaret Irvin, Lancaster, department counselor for the Ladies of the GAR; Mrs. Gertrude Weber, Lancaster, department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans; Mrs. Caroline E. Riddell, department president of the Auxiliary of the SUV, and Chester S. Shriver, department commander of the SUV. Attorney John A. MacPhail, commander of Post 202 of the American Legion, and Raymond Strohm, commander of the local VFW, also spoke. Miss Connie Riley provided xylophone music during the dinner. John Zimmerman, commander of local camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, spoke and played a harmonica selection.

Runkle also served as master of ceremonies for the reception following dinner.

CANNERS HEAR WM. U. HUDSON

YORK, Pa. — The importance of the individual to efficiency of their manufacturing production was stressed here today in an address to Pennsylvania canning executives by William U. Hudson, Calif., first vice president in charge of research, Gerber Products Co., and 1956 president of the National Canners Association, speaking at the 42nd annual convention of the Pennsylvania Canners Association.

"An industrial organization is a human society, involving the interactions, activities, goals and sentiments of all its people. It is the people in our organizations and the general atmosphere and conditions that surround them and in which they work that determine how much we get done," he asserted.

Want Human Dignity

"Men hunger above all else for human dignity and resent compulsory insignificance," Hudson pointed out. "Recognition of these human desires on the part of all the people in our organizations is inseparably linked to good, commonsense management, of large or small companies. Enthusiasm and good morale, and hence good, efficient productivity filters down from the top and must be passed along to the various levels of departmental supervision."

Hudson urged that management learn the art of communication with employes, saying that every employe has a natural hunger for information that affects him on his job. "He wants all the information he can get about his job — the good as well as the bad. He will get this information somewhere, from someone. He probably will get a lot of misinformation along with it if he doesn't get it from management.."

Management, he said, should address itself to the crying need of the individual for personal recognition and status, to the need of people who work in groups for a feeling of importance and acceptance in their relationship with others. "These are compelling needs which must be dealt with — the needs of everyone from the president to the foreman to the sweeper."

Principal speaker at the reception was Walter Mabie, past SUV commander-in-chief and department secretary-treasurer. "The Sons of Union Veterans, and the ladies' organization affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic are truly unselfish organizations. They seek nothing for themselves. They seek only to keep alive the memory of what our grandfathers did in the Civil War, to keep alive the memory of the men who made sacrifices not only for their time, but for you and for me, for we are all benefiting today by what they did more than 90 years ago."

Many gifts were presented and numerous others spoke briefly in praise of Commander Shriver, including Col. LeRoy Stoudt, national chief of staff of the SUVR, and Mrs. S. E. Kapp, national press correspondent of the DUV.

Weather Forecast

Extended forecast for Tuesday, Nov. 20, through Saturday, Nov. 24:

NEGOTIATIONS ON DOCK STRIKE REOPEN TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Union and management negotiators return to the conference table today in an effort to end the four-day-old longshoremen's strike that has tied up major ports from Maine to Texas.

Contract talks between the International Longshoremen's Assn. and the New York Shipping Assn. broke up Saturday after a bitter meeting.

About 60,000 dock workers walked off the job on the East and Gulf coasts when their twice-extended contract ran out at midnight Thursday. More than 150 ships were idled.

24-Hour Stoppage

Meanwhile, longshoremen on the West Coast planned to stop work today for a 24-hour period. The walkout was scheduled by Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU).

The ILWU called the work stoppage ostensibly to consider its own contract talks with the Pacific Maritime Assn. ILWU spokesmen did not deny, however, that the East and Gulf coast strike figured in their plans.

The West Coast union has already staged a "sympathy" tieup of 10 ships in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Coos Bay, Ore., and Bellingham, Wash. The union refused to work ships arriving from or leaving for Atlantic and Gulf ports involved in the ILA shutdown.

Other forms of transportation began to feel the strike pinch.

In Washington, railroad officials were reported to be considering an embargo on export freight because of the backlog of cargo in ports.

A trickle of ships managed to dock in some ports. The Cunard liner Parthia and the Holland-America liner Maasdam docked in the Port of New York yesterday. Company personnel helped passengers unload their baggage.

The main issues in the strike are demands by the Independent ILA that:

The Main Issues

1. The New York employers sign a single contract for all East and Gulf coast ports.

2. Men called to the piers for any task be guaranteed at least eight hours' pay.

3. The employers set a definite limit on the amount of cargo to be lifted in a single slingload.

4. The work gang size for general cargo shipments remain at no fewer than 20 men.

The New York Employers' Assn. which represents 170 shipping and stevedoring firms, insists that it does not have authority to negotiate for other Atlantic and Gulf ports.

DEMOCRAT WINS IN TIGHT RACE

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Democratic Rep. Alfred D. Sieminski has finally been confirmed as winner of the 13th Congressional District battle, and Republican Norman Roth has offered his congratulations.

The latest recheck of the see-saw election fight showed Sieminski re-elected by 57 votes, Superintendent of Elections William MacPhail said Saturday.

The final tally, according to MacPhail, was Sieminski, 54,841; Roth, 54,784.

MacPhail said each candidate lost six votes in the absentee ballot recheck and Roth lost two machine votes. The latest count gave Sieminski 637 absentee ballots to 431 for Roth.

From his home here, Roth said "it was a good fight." He sent his congratulations to Sieminski, also of Jersey City.

The absentee votes turned the election in Sieminski's favor, Roth said.

BOY, 7, DIRECTS SYMPHONY AT CARNEGIE HALL

NEW YORK (AP)—A couple of batons flew out of tiny hands—but the music went right on—as a self-possessed 7-year-old boy made his debut as conductor of the Symphony of the Air at Carnegie Hall last night.

But the baton mishaps can't be held too much against Joey Alfidi, billed as the "world's youngest conductor."

Batons sometimes slipped out of the grip of Joey's predecessor, Arturo Toscanini, onetime conductor of the orchestra.

Used All The Gestures

Associated Press arts editor W. G. Rogers observed:

"It was not a big audience but it was a happy one, and Joey was happiest of all. He knew all the gestures, and he used them all, and the orchestra did right by him."

Joey was on the podium in white suit and white socks, with bare knees. His face was sober as the orchestra — formerly the NBC Symphony—played the overtures to Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro" and Rossini's "William Tell" and two symphonies, Haydn's "Surprise" and Beethoven's Fifth.

The concert was a benefit for the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers, N.Y., in which Joey was born. His father Frank Alfidi is a trumpet player.

KILLED BY TRAIN

CLEMENTON, N.J. (AP) — Leon Dutch, 48, of Philadelphia, was killed when thrown from a car when it was struck by a freight train yesterday near the Clementon Station of the Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Lines. Dutch, a passenger, was dragged more than 200 feet under the wheels of the train. Two other men in the car were injured.

In the early days of the nation postage for a one-sheet letter cost up to 25 cents.

Littlestown

OPEN HOUSE AT ROLLING ACRES TUESDAY NIGHT

Open house will be held at the Rolling Acres Elementary School, immediately following the November business meeting of the Littlestown Jointure Parent Teachers' Association on Tuesday evening. The business session will begin at 7:30 p.m. "American Education" will be the theme of the program. Work of the elementary pupils will be on display and parents will have an opportunity to meet the teachers in their classrooms. R. Edward Newman is chairman of the program committee.

Ladies' Night will be observed at the Thanksgiving meeting of the Littlestown Rotary Club at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday in the Kingsdale Fire Hall. Andrew S. Beshore, humorist, traveler and orator, will be the guest speaker. Arrangements are in charge of the community service committee, Walter F. Crouse, chairman.

Approximately 40 young people of St. John's Church Luther League and their guests enjoyed a hay ride on Friday evening in two wagons, pulled with a tractor driven by Larry Hawk. Following the ride the group returned to the church for refreshments.

Is Given Quilt

Mrs. Richard D. Thomas, E. King St., received the old fashioned homemade quilt given at the public card party held by the Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown on Friday night in St. Aloysius Hall. The door prize, a large basket of fruit, went to Mrs. Richard B. Bortner, Hanover.

Prayer meeting will be held in tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Girl Scout Troop 13 will meet at 6:45 p.m. on Tuesday in the Scout headquarters at the E. King St. school.

Home For Holidays

The turkeys presented by Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion on Saturday night were received by Theron Bittle, Littlestown, R. 2; James W. Fager, Lumber St.; Margaret Bucher, and Robert Jacoby, Littlestown, R. 1; William I. Straley, E. King St.; Hattie Logue, Westminster, R. 4; Clyde H. Rohrbaugh, Lumber St.; David E. Greason, E. King St.; Ralph Burgen, Westminster, and George Franklin, Westminster R. 6.

John Koons, a student at the Williamson Trade School, Media, is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. G. Howard Koons, and family, E. King St.

Pfc. Ersa F. Six, son of Mrs. Vallie S. Six, Littlestown, R. D., and the late Ersa Six, received his honorable discharge from the army at Fort Sheridan, Ill. He was inducted into the Army on Nov. 1, 1954, and spent nearly 18 months in and around Hawaii.

Kenneth Reinaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reinaman, near town, and a student at the Shippensburg State Teachers' College, is enjoying the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of his parents.

MOVE TO STOP DEPORTATIONS OF HUNGARIANS

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Cuba planned to ask the U.N. General Assembly today to urge a halt to Soviet deportations of Hungarians.

Hoping to line up more of the Assembly's 79 votes, the Cuban delegation revised its resolution so as to drop a charge that the deportations constituted genocide, or the attempted destruction of a nation, racial or religious group.

The change was directed particularly at the United States and other countries that have not ratified the 1948 convention against genocide.

Hungarian Foreign Minister Imre Horvath was expected to deny the charge of deportation, as Budapest radio did yesterday.

In its revised form, the resolution cites "the principle" of the genocide convention and notes particularly provisions against subjecting a group to unbearable conditions and against transferring its children to another group.

Not Ratified By U.S.

The United States has never ratified the genocide convention. Hungary, the Soviet Union and 52 other countries have.

Backers of the convention said two U.S. delegates, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), had fought to keep the genocide charge out of the resolution. They laid this to a U.S. Senate faction's "fear of treaties and entanglements."

These sources said it was pressure from Lodge and Knowland that also led Cuba, Ireland, Italy, Pakistan and Peru to drop a genocide charge from their resolution —adopted Nov. 9—which called for withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary and free election there under U.N. auspices.

A spokesman for the U.S. delegation would make no comment on the genocide feature of either resolution.

Seek More Support

The new Cuban draft contained further changes intended to win over countries that felt earlier versions went too far on the basis of the evidence at hand.

Instead of blaming the Soviet government for the deportations, it blamed "the Soviet army of occupation in Hungary."

Instead of saying that the deportations were to the Soviet Union, it said the army was "forcibly deporting Hungarian men, women and children from their homes to places outside Hungary."

The resolution asks Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to keep the Assembly informed on compliance with it and with previous Assembly resolutions on Hungary so the Assembly may "consider such further action as it may deem necessary."

OFFERING FOR HUNGARIANS IS RECEIVED

A special collection for the war relief fund of Hungary was received on Sunday in Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church. "I Will Give Thanks," Marks, was the anthem sung by the Senior Choir of 25 voices, accompanied by Mrs. George A. Stonesifer. The pastor, the Rev. Porter W. Seiwell, delivered a sermon on the subject "Go, And Tell John." The Kingdom Roll Call visitors were commissioned by the pastor, and the Roll Call was conducted in the afternoon.

The 1957 budget of Redeemer's Church, totaling over $14,000, was adopted by the congregation. Welcomed into the church fellowship were Miss Kathryn L. Strevig, S. Queen St., by letter of transfer from St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Moss Morehead Jr., Prince St., transfer from St. Mary's Lutheran Church, Silver Run. The altar flowers yesterday were placed by Dewey M. Henry in memory of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Henry. The Rev. Mr. Seiwell announced that the World Service clothing project has been extended until after Thanksgiving.

The annual Thank Offering service by the Women's Guild will be held next Sunday at 10:30 a.m. Thank Offering boxes will be collected and should be placed in a carton in the church narthex. Women of the Guild will conduct the service. The Rev. Mr. Seiwell will deliver the sermon and dedicate the thank offering boxes.

The Junior Choir will sing at the Thank Offering service, and will have rehearsal at 6:30 p.m. on Wednessday.

Redeemer's Hustlers' Class will hold its November meeting in the church social hall at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday. Mrs. Margaret Wehler, Mrs. John Hilbert and Mrs. William I. Straley will serve as hostesses.

Mission Group Meets

Mrs. William A. Ellsworth Jr. explained the film "Thank You," shown at the November meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's Union Church, held at the church on Friday evening. The film told of the work of the World Service Department of the Reformed Church. Prior to the film, there were hymn singing and a responsive reading.

The president, Mrs. Guy McCabe, read a letter telling of the goals of the denomination chairmen. The group discussed the sheets on World Service projects and selected to make share packs, which contain sewing and school packages. This project will be completed at the next meeting on Friday, December 28, at the church, when members will bring their packages for contribution. Plans were made for the society and the Young People's group to sponsor the showing of the film "Song of the Shining Mountain" on Sunday, Dec. 2, 7 p.m., at the church, for the public. Mrs. Parr R. Breighner, secretary, reported. Election of officers will take place at the next meeting on Dec. 28

Promotions Made

Promotion was observed in the Sunday School of Centenary Methodist Church during the Sunday School hour on Sunday morning and Superintendent Chester S. Byers has announced the following promotions: From Beginners to Primary Department, Douglas Rugles, Dennis Musselman and Debbie Metz; from Primary to Junior, Judy Knight, David Byers, Wayne Barnhart and Eddie Budd, and from Junior to Intermediate, Lester Barnes, Carl Roberts, Miriam Wood, Joyce Knight and James Myers.

The Junior Fellowship of Centenary Methodist will meet at 6:30 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Chester S. Byers, East Myrtle St., and the members are asked to take along their water colors to continue work on their Christmas projects.

Mass On Thanksgiving

The Rev. William A. Boyle, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, announced at the the moring masses on Sunday that there will be a high mass at 8 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day. Tonight at 7 o'clock there will be no religious instruction at the rectory. A meeting of all those who will serve on committees for the Thanksgiving bazaar on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week will be held at 7:45 tonight. There will be prayers at 8:30 p.m. at the Little Funeral Home for the repose of the soul of Robert French, whose funeral mass will be at 9 a.m. Tuesday. Mass on Wednesday will be at 7:15 a.m. and on Friday at 7:30 a.m.

Adults of the congregation who have not been confirmed are asked to report to the pastor at the rectory on Wednesday evening for instruction for adult confirmation at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Harrisburg on Sunday, December 2. The annual clothing collection in the Harrisburg Diocese for Foreign Relief will be conducted for the remainder of this month. One good used garment from each parishioner is the goal.

SHRIMP DISH IS POPULAR IN RICHMOND

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The Associated Press

Ever hear of Shrimp Norfolk? It's a dish that probably originated along the Virginia seacoast and is now popular in Richmond. A friend told us about it but no Southern cookbook in our collection yielded the recipe. Then we heard that the dish was served at an old and respected businessman's club (the Commonwealth) in Richmond and the club's chef kindly obliged with the directions for making this seafood specialty.

Most Virginians, we are told, like the shrimp dish with plenty of "Norfolk"—in other words, plenty of its tart sauce. Trying it in our own kitchen, we found Shrimp Norfolk delightful to serve with rice. And although Richmond directions call for using either cider or tarragon vinegar, we prefer the former. Here's our version of the dish:

Shrimp Norfolk, Richmond Style

Ingredients: One package (eight ounces) shelled and deveined individually frozen shrimp, three tablespoons butter or margaine, ½ teaspoon salt, three tablespoons cider vinegar or tarragon vinegar, two teaspoons lemon juice, two to four lemon slices, two to four lemon-peel bows, parsley, paprika.

Method: Turn frozen shrimp into nine- or ten-inch skillet. Set over high heat. When glaze starts to melt, turn shrimp gently until all glaze has melted. Remove skillet from heat; with a cover to hold back shrimp, pour off glaze; reserve glaze. Add butter, salt, vinegar and lemon juice to shrimp in skillet; return to moderately low heat. Cook, stirring ofen, just until shrimp are opaque through; this will probably take only a few minutes. If desired add one or two tablespoons of the reserved shrimp liquid. Serve shrimp and sauce as is; or remove shrimp and reduce small amount of sauce even more by cooking rapidly for a minute or so. Garnish each serving with lemon slices, lemon-peel bows and parsley sprigs; sprinkle with paprika. Extra salt and pepper — preferably fresh-ground—are passed to be added to taste. French-fried potatoes and a salad are often served with the shrimp. Makes two main-course servings or four first-course servings.

NOTE: If an iron skillet is used for cooking the shrimp, there will be more melted glaze than if a lighter skillet is used.

Shrimp Notes

We find that individually frozen shrimp that come all shelled and deveined in eight-ounce packages a real boon. With a couple of packages in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator, or in your freezer, you can prepare a delicious company main-course in no time at all. As directed in the Shrimp Norfolk recipe, the shrimp can be skillet-cooked, in frozen form, in a matter of minutes. Longer cooking, as a matter of fact, will toughen them.

We like to add two packages of the shrimp to a generous amount of butter or olive oil in our electric skillet right at the dining table. Then we add whatever seasonings we have on hand that we think our guests will enjoy. Crushed garlic and minced fresh dill or minced chives and parsley make wonderful seasoning combinations for the shrimp. We like to serve these skillet-shrimp with French bread for dunking up the good buttery sauce plus baked potatoes and a salad. Add such a homey dessert as apple pie, bring on the coffee, and you have delightful fare.

Retriever Needed To Retrieve Goods

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP) — E. V. Putnam's dog Pud is giving him some concern.

The spaniel has been doing some retrieving without sanction. Objects retrieved in a recent period of a few weeks included six of the neighbors' aluminum pots and pans, one copper-bottomed pot and two china dishes.

On an eight-hour hunting trip, however, Pud failed to flush a single game bird.

SOME YOKE

FURNACE, Ky. (AP) — Farmer Floyd Willis always wanted a team of oxen. So when his Hereford cow gave birth to twin male calves, Willis began carefully tending them.

Now he has that team and they do many chores on the farm, which is without truck, tractor, horses or mules. Each of the twins weighs about 600 pounds. That's junior size as far as oxen go.

Severity Of Winter Hinges On Rations

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — An old custom holds that the darker the fall coat of the woolly bear caterpillar the more severe the winter that follows.

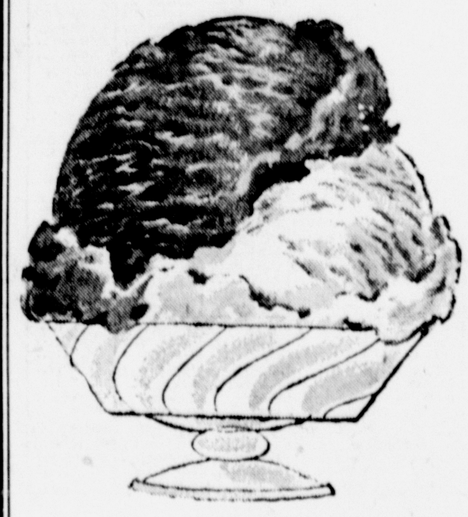

But Prof. Thomas C. Allen, chairman of the entomology department of the University of Wisconsin, says it's just something the caterpillars ate.

"The color of the coats is due to whatever food is available when they shed their coats," Allen said.

Macaroni products need to be cooked in a large amount of boiling salted water to keep them from becoming sticky.

Newest Buick Yet

WE'VE introduced a lot of new Buicks to the local scene—but never before one as new as this.

Inside and outside, top to toe, end to end—this is the newest Buick yet.

And it's not just new for newness itself—but new in ways that make driving more comfortable, safer and more fun.

You'll see what we mean when you study these gorgeous new Buicks close up.

They're inches lower and stunningly styled from stem to stern—yet each is wondrously roomy inside.

They bring a wide-eyed new visibility of the road ahead with a rakish windshield that adds hundreds more square inches of glass area.

They're new in ride, with a new contour frame chassis that "nests" your going—giving new roadability with a lower center of gravity—yet road clearance is unchanged.

They're new in handling with a new Buick-developed ball-joint suspension that makes steering and cornering easier while it levelizes braking.

But above and beyond all else—these 1957 Buicks are brand new in performance:

—with a V8 engine that's new from the crankshaft up, to give you the highest power and compression in all Buick annals.

—with an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* that brings you such instant response, such smoothness, such a full range of fluid motion in "Drive" that the need for "Low" is all but eliminated.

All this covers only the big advances in the 1957 Buick.

There are other wonderful new things—the new safety instrument panel—the new color-mate interiors—the new counterbalanced brake pedals—well over a hundred and fifty new features in all.

As your Buick dealer, we're ready to show you these newest Buicks yet—and how easy you'll find it to call one your own. Stop in and see us this week.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

FOUR SCHOOLBOY CHAMPIONSHIPS STILL AT STAKE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Only four major scholastic football championships remain to be decided in the 1956 season.

Official close of the campaign will feature a host of traditional Turkey Day games Thursday—including three that will decide major conference titles. Only scattered games remain to be played after Thanksgiving.

At the top of the list is the clash between Williamsport and Steelton. Once gain upset-minded Steelton is the lone stumbling block between the Millionaires and the Central Penn League pennant.

Steelton won 7-6 against a highly rated Williamsport club last year to become Central Penn co-champion with the Millionaires. A Steelton win this year would force Williamsport into a tie with John Harris for the crown.

Allentown and Bethlehem will meet to decide whether Allentown is to be the sole undefeated team of the Allentown-Easton-Bethlehem Big Three. An Allentown loss would split the title three ways.

Must Beat West Chester

In the southeastern Pennsylvania Ches-Mont circuit Conestoga must defeat West Chester to take the title.

The other championship is the Eastern Conference crown to be decided in a playoff Dec. 1.

Two major championships were clinched in weekend competition and the ranks of top undefeated teams were pared to six.

In the WPIAL, Jeannette won the Class A crown to replace 1955 champion Aliquippa by dumping Charleroi 16-13. Both teams were previously undefeated in WPIAL competition.

Carlisle and Mechanicsburg battled to a 13-13 tie, which gave Carlisle the South Penn title. If Carlisle had dropped the contest there would have been a three-way tie between Mechanicsburg, Carlisle and Middletown.

In the east, Lower Merion squashed Radnor 33-12 to extend its win skein to eight for the season and 28 in a row over three seasons—the longest win streak of any major team in the state.

Lower Merion had clinched the Suburban Philadelphia championship earlier in the season.

In the WPIAL Class A championship game Braddock crushed Carmichaels 38-0 to extend their undefeated string to 29 games. Only a 7-7 tie with Midland in 1954 blemishes the Generals' record.

The Eastern Conference Northern and Southern division championships have yet to be decided. However, it appears the most likely contender for Northern Division honors is Sowyersville, which added another victory to its win column Friday by crushing West Pittston 34-0. The Southern leader appears to be St. Clair.

Definite winners of the two divisions in the conference will not be decided until Saturday when conference officials meet at Hazleton. Winners of the two divisions will meet Dec. 1 in the playoff for the conference title.

Besides Lower Merion there are the state's remaining undefeated-untied teams (wins this year in brackets: Corry (9); St. Clair (9); Ambridge (9); Sharon (10); Jeannette (10).

3 KILLED IN CRASH

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — Three young men were killed today when their automobile crashed into the side of a tractor trailer truck which police said was blocking the highway.

They were Walstein Down, 20; Ruryl Wagner, 18, and his brother, Robert, 27, all of nearby Niagara. The driver of the automobile, Robert Ambrosia, 19, also of Niagara, was seriously injured.

Police charge the truck driver, Gerald Fox, 37, of Penfield, Pa., with obstructing the highway, but did not explain how the truck got into that position.

9 DIE IN CRASH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nine persons lost their lives on Pennsylvania roads during the weekend but only one in a cllision involving more than one vehicle. Two pedestrians were killed and six persons died in cars that left the highway.

The total accidental toll was 11. Two men died in fires.

Three cars struck utility poles, one skidded into a wall, one ran off the road, one was hit by a train and one was in a collision with a truck.

Melted butter, lemon juice, soy sauce and a little sugar make a delicious basting sauce for broiled fish or poultry.

Rudolph Halley, 43, Expires Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Rudolph Halley, 43, attorney who became nationally known as counsel for the Kefauver crime investigating committee, died today in Mt. Sinai Hospital.

He had been at the hospital since Oct. 16, under treatment for an acute inflammation of the pancreas.

Followirg service with the crime investigating committee under the chairmanship of Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) in 1950-51, Halley was elected to a term as president of the New York City Council.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice Adm. Ralph A. Ofstie, 59, former chief of staff and aide to the commander of naval forces in the Far East, onetime commander of the U.S. 6th Fleet and holder of numerous seaplane speed records in the early days of naval aviation, died yesterday. He was born in Eau Claire, Wis.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Henry L. Rath, 70, engineer and petroleum geologist who was active in oil explorations in Utah and Colorado, died Saturday. Rath was born in Rock Rapids, Iowa.

INJURED IN CRASH

TOKYO (AP)—A U.S. Air Force major and his wife, both from Bridgeport, Pa., were injured here Sunday in a collision between their car and a truck near Fuchu Air Base on the outskirts of Tokyo.

The Air Force identified the couple as Maj. and Mrs. Joseph M. Pagano. Pagano suffered head injuries and broken ribs. He is a wing commander at the Fuchu base.

ELDERLY PAIR KILLED BY CARS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Traffic accidents took the lives of an elderly man and woman in Harrisburg over the weekend.

The victims were Harper James Myers, 81, of nearby Bressler, and Mrs. Anna Besso, 71, of Buffalo, N.Y.

Harvey A. Ream, Harrisburg, told police Myers appeared suddenly in front of his auto Saturday. Ream said he was unable to avoid hitting the elderly man.

Mrs. Besso was killed in a collision between a car and a panel truck on Rt. 22 near the city. Injured in the crash was Nathan Lightman, 69, also of Buffalo, brother of Mrs. Besso. He was admitted to Harrisburg Hospital for treatment of injuries.

Six other persons in the two-car crash were treated at the hospital and discharged.

HANDSHAKING BY DEMOCRATS FAILED TO PAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — No two men ever tried harder than Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver to climb hand over hand to high office. But the human hand never looked more useless than it did in the 1956 presidential campaign.

They put on perhaps the biggest handshaking campaign in political history — thanks to all the ways they had for getting around — and both wound up losing the election, their own states and even their own counties.

If they had never shaked a hand they could hardly have made out worse.

Proved In '52

Maybe nothing could have offset the public satisfaction with President Eisenhower, who spent practically no time shaking hands with individuals but concentrated on talking in a few speeches to the biggest crowds that could be assembled.

Eisenhower had demonstrated in the New Hampshire Republican primary of 1952, when he beat the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, that a candidate doesn't have to make a single speech or shake hands with one voter if his popularity and prestige are big enough.

He was in Europe during the New Hampshire primary campaign, while Taft trouped the state.

May Change Tactics

Perhaps next time the Democrats will put less value on personal meetings between candidates and individual voters and more on getting across complete ideas in far fewer speeches to far bigger groups of voters.

It was the Minnesota primary last March — when Kefauver whipped Stevenson — which may have set the Democrats on the course they followed.

A lot of reasons were given for Kefauver's victory in Minnesota. They included his incessant handshaking and that he got around more than Stevenson.

Stevenson, who had to overtake Kefauver to remain in the running for the nomination, adopted much of the Kefauver technique: the handshaking, the meetings with small groups, and some of the Kefauver folksiness.

He won the remaining primaries. Then the two men followed essentially the same pattern in the national presidential campaign.

Exhausting Campaign

But it doesn't follow that what works in a primary within the limited area of one state is the medicine for a national campaign. Stevenson and Kefauver made an exhausting campaign. Kefauver's part may be remembered less for what he said than for his handshaking. Stevenson made as many speeches a day to as many groups as he could.

While doing so, he was making pretty much the same speech over and over. He spent much of his time rephrasing to make the same speech sound better the next time.

If he had made no more than one speech a day and had gone into details on his criticisms and programs, he might have done better. Instead, he talked mostly in generalities.

KREMLIN CHIEF AGAINS INSULTS NATO NATIONS

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MOSCOW (AP) — Red-faced and gesticulating, Nikita S. Khrushchev told the West last night "We will bury you."

For the second consecutive night, the Soviet Communist party boss delivered an anti-Western tirade so bitter that diplomats from Atlantic Alliance nations and Israel left the room. Khrushchev's main themes at a Polish Embassy reception were Egypt and Hungary.

Obviously speaking to the Western diplomats in attendance, Khrushchev said

"If you don't like us, don't accept our invitations and don't invite us to come to see you.

"Whether you like it or not, history is on our side. We will bury you."

The Western envoys, including U. S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen, retired to an outer room where one said, "The atmosphere is much more pleasant." They returned to the hall where the Poles were toasting a just-signed Moscow-Warsaw joint declaration after Khrushchev finished speaking.

Called "Fascist Gangs"

The night before, Khrushchev had denounced "Fascist gangs" in Hungary and "imperialists and their puppets" in the Egyptian war during a Kremlin reception for the Poles.

On that occasion the Western diplomats stalked out and did not return.

Last night's party followed agreement on a joint Polish-Russian statement some Poles considered a virtual declaration of independence — although Poland remains firmly within the Moscow led alliance of Communist nations.

"Peacefully Co-exist"

Khrushchev began calm.

"We are Bolsheviks. We stick firmly to the Lenin precept — Don't be stubborn if you see you are wrong, but don't give in if you are right."

He said the Communist countries can find solutions to all their problems on the basis of mutual understanding and equality.

But then, seemingly directing his remarks at the Western diplomats, he said

"We say this not only for the Socialist states who are more akin to us. We base ourselves on the idea that we must peacefully coexist. About the capitalist states, it doesn't depend on you whether or not we exist."

Khrushchev then announced that history was on the Communists' side and that "we will bury you." Other Russian leaders burst into applause.

Egypt Situation Serious

Of Hungary, Khrushchev said:

"We are very sorry that such a situation exists there. We are sure that the Hungarian working class will find the strength to overcome the difficulties. But the most important thing is that the counterrevolution must be shattered."

Of Egypt:

"The Western powers are trying to denigrate Nasser. . . . The situation is serious and we are realists. The fire must be put out. I think the British and French will be wise enough to withdraw their forces and then Egypt will emerge stronger than ever."

Again referring to the West, Khrushchev said:

"You say we want war, but you now have got yourselves into a position I would call idiotic. . .

"But we don't want to profit by it. If you withdraw your troops from Germany, France and Britain — I'm speaking of American troops — we will not stay one day in Poland, Hungary and Romania.

"But we, Mister Capitalists, we are beginning to understand your methods. You have given us a lesson in Egypt. If we had a quarter of our present friendships for the Poles, Czechs and Slovaks before the war (World War II), the war would never have started."

PROOF POSITIVE

RHINELANDER, Wis. (AP) — A boy, accused of trying to steal a tape recording machine, was arrested in a department store here. He denied the charge, but police turned on the recorder and heard the youngster's voice saying, "I guess I'll steal this machine."

TWO LINCOLN MYTHS REFUTED BY DR. M'MURTRY

Two popular myths concerning Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address which have gained credence through the years were refuted today by Dr. R. Gerald McMurtry, director of the Lincoln National Life Foundation sponsored by The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company, Fort Wayne, Ind, in discussing November 19, the 93rd anniversary af the Address.

One such story pointed out by Dr. McCurtry claims that Lincoln wrote the now-famous speech on an old piece of wrapping paper with a borrowed pencil stub while on the train from Washington to Gettysburg. Another tale has it that the Address was not composed until Lincoln reached the home of his Gettysburg host, Colonel David Wills.

Reveal Corrections

"Careful research, however," Dr. McMurtry said, "show the facts to be quite different. The Library of Congress has both a preliminary draft and the battlefield copy of the Gettysburg Address. Comparison of the two copies reveal corrections on the battlefield copy, indicating previous preparation of the preliminary draft. Noah Brooks, one of Abraham Lincoln's secretaries, was told by the President several days before the dedication date that the speech already was written and that what he had ready to say was, 'short, short, short.' At least three government officials are reported to have read the manuscript at Washington before Lincoln departed for the ceremonies."

According to Dr. McMurtry, these facts are ample proof that Lincoln devoted time and care to the preparation of his Gettysburg Address and that the acceptance of this speech as a masterpiece was not the lucky happenstance of extemporaneous oratory, but rather the reward of sincere, reverent and careful preparation.

York Springs

The Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 19 held an Investiture ceremony ecently in the Scout Cabin. The new girls are Karen DeHaven, Dorale Starner, Darlene Wonders, Helen Thomas, Roxie Thomas, Judy Trostle, Cheryl Snyder. The new assistant leader, Mrs. Joel Zepp, was also invested. The ceremony was planned and carried out by members of the 7th grade patrol, Dorene Highlands, Sandra Weigle, Gloria DeHaven and Bonnie Schrade. The Sixth grade patrol did dramatization of the Scout Laws and led the troop in songs. The next several meetings will be devoted to a Santa's Workshop.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Darr purchased a lot from Della B. Hershey. It is across the road from their present house which the state gave them notice to vacate relative to the by-pass now being built. They are building a house on the new site.

Miss Kathryn O'Boyle, Miss Eleanor Wolfinger, Janet and Donald Golden attended the Harrisburg Community Concert in Thursday night held in the Forum. The artist was Frank Guarreara, baritone.

BISHOPS BACK EISENHOWER'S LEADERSHIP

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Catholic Bishops of the United States today issued a ringing endorsement of President Eisenhower's "vigorous leadership" through the recurring world crises.

At the same time the prelates pledged "our unremitting efforts" to help the Hungarian people and cited the United Nations as the "only present promise we have for sustained peace in our time."

The bishops assembled for their annual meeting at the Catholic University of America, November 14-15. Their statement entitled "Peace, Unity — the Hope of Manking," was released by the Administrative Board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The 216 cardinals, archbishops, and bishops stated that "one voice, urgent and clear, has made itself heard above the tumult of the nations The Common Father of Christendom, Pope Pius XII, has spoken out with unhesitating forthrightness . . . In this crisis we can only add our voice to his." They condemned, with the Pope, "this fresh outbreak of aggression" which defies "the hard-won concert of the nations for the outlawing of international banditry."

"Vigorous Leadership"

Turning to the policies of the American government, the bishops said:

'Worthy of highest praise are its efforts, rising above considerations of party and politics, to bring the problems before the tribunal of the nations. . . . Our President, indeed, has set a pattern of vigorous leadership, and has emphasized many of the points which have been dwelt upon by Pope Pius XII."

The bishops then referred to the Pope's broadcast to the world on Saturday, November 10. "He too is alert to the overriding need of a developed reverence for international law, clearly mindful, as he stressed . . . that without law there can be no peace."

Echoing the Pope's recent pleas for peace, promulgated by an unprecedented three encyclical letters in two weeks, the bishops stated:

"We share his anguish for those unmerited sufferings have again filled the cup of human misery to overflowing. Our eyes follow his as he surveys the ravaged cities, the desolated countrysides, the charred ruins of a thousand homes and shrines. We count with him the ghastly casualties of modern warfare, the broken bodies, the dead in their silent windows. Foremost, inevitably, in our thinking are the heroic people of Hungary."

Pledge All Efforts

The bishops said that "to them, in their darkest hour, we offer the sympathy of our common faith and we pledge unremitting efforts to help them achieve that ultimate liberty for which their sons and daughters have died, surely not in vain."

Yet the solution to problems is not nuclear warfare which would bring "a nightmare of unimaginable horrors," the bishops warned. But "if, in the ultimate resort, it is the duty of man to resist naked aggression, still it is obvious that every possible means consistent with divine law and human dignity must be employed and exhausted to avoid the final arbitrament of nuclear warfare."

In this regard, the United Nations "has been the hope of humankind," the bishops said. "If there have been mistakes in its decisions and faltering in its procedures, that is no more than a commentary on our human condition. The fast remains that it offers the only present promise we have for sustained peace in our time; peace with any approximation of justice."

"Crusade Of Prayer"

The members of the hierachy called upon "the faithful throughout the land to pledge themselves to a veritable crusade of prayer . . . that international sanity will triumph over war."

Even as the bishops met, Catholics across the country were planning prayer demonstrations. Today, the feast of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, has been set aside by more than 500,000 college students, affiliated with Newman Clubs and the National Federation of Catholic College Students, as a day of prayer for students killed in the Hungarian revolt. In Camden, N. J., the entire diocese is participating in a five-week crusade of prayer. Similar programs have been launched in other parts of the country.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED

HACKENSACK, N.J. (AP) — Miss Peggy Palumbo, 27, of 550 Carson St., Hadleton, Pa., was killed Saturday night when she was struck by a truck on Rt. 17 and tossed into the path of a passing automobile.

The new U. S. Arx "mechanical mule" is only 27 inches high. It can mount the Army's 106-mm recoilless rifle, a deadly anti-tank weapon.

REPORT GOOD BONDS' SALES

WASHINGTON, D. C. — October sales of series E and H savings bonds were $390 million, making a 10-month total for 1956 of $4,313 million, the Treasury announced today.

Sales of E bonds are running about the same as last year—$3,518 million for the first 10 months of this year, compared with $3,517 million for the corresponding period of 1955. Series H bonds sales are off—$795 million for 1956 through October, compared with $1,031 million for the first ten months of last year.

Total redemptions for the 10-month period are $4,072 million, compared with $3,910 million in 1955. This includes October redemptions of $411 million, compared with $358 million in October, 1955.

Thus, E and H sales for the 10 months have exceeded redemptions by $241 million. This compares with $638 million for the same period a year ago.

Cash value of E and H bonds held by individuals now stands at $41.2 billion, of which $15.1 billion is in E bonds that have passed their 10-year original maturity date, and continue to draw interest under the treasury's automatic extension option.

CRASH CUTS POWER

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP)—Power was cut off from 5,000 homes in Gilberton, Mazeville and Mahanoy Plane yesterday when a car crashed into a utility pole during a snowstorm.

Michael Puglia, 39, of Girardville, suffered serious head and chest injuries in the crash at Girardville, a mile south of here. He was reported in critical condition at Ashland State Hospital.

ON EDITORIAL BOARD

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Jack Beaman of the Sayre, Pa., Evening Times has been elected to the board of directors of the National Conference of Editorial Writers. The organization held its annual meeting here over the weekend.

Flies To Vienna To Cut Red Tape

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Francis Walter (D-Pa) left here by plane for Vienna yesterday on the trip he said was aimed at helping to "cut the red tape" to expedite entry of Hungarian refugees into the United States.

Walter was co-author of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act.

President Eisenhower has authorized admission of 5,000 Hungarian refugees under special provisions of the act.

The Easton, Pa., congressman said he would remain in Austria about a week.

FIRE UNDER BRIDGE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A fire under a major highway bridge on Welsh Rd. over the Reading Co. railroad tracks in suburban Willow Grove tied up highway and rail traffic for about two hours Saturday night. Hundreds of persons were left without gas or electricity when utility lines were shut off until the fire was controlled.
